

PERFORMER REQUIREMENTS AND OBLIGATIONS

1. The artist understands that both the Spotlight and Showcase are courtesy services provided in support of emerging and established original artists.
2. Showcase slots are curated and very popular which means the competition is fierce. Typically, it will be possible to secure only one Showcase/artist spot per year (excluding performance at the Festival of Original Music).
3. Both Spotlight and Showcases are tightly scheduled. All booked artists must demonstrate a professional attitude, punctuality and reliability. No-shows or last-minute cancellations without due reason will result in the forfeiting of future live opportunities with SCALA for a period of at least 12 months.
4. In the event of cancellation, SCALA needs to be informed via email (scala@scala.org.au) 2 weeks before the confirmed performance date. With approved excuse, the cancellation can be re-booked for later.
5. All promotional material must be provided 8 weeks prior to performance.

Artists must promote their gig amongst their networks to ensure a successful turnout on the night. We are more likely to re-book acts that have put in the effort to attract larger audiences. We promote your gig via fortnightly/monthly via our database, our socials and via posters at the venue. You are welcome to tap into these posts and share but you must undertake your own dedicated PR campaign.

PERFORMER REQUIREMENTS AND OBLIGATIONS

6. Spotlight artists need to report to the evening's stage manager on arrival (latest 7:30pm) and accept that a thorough sound check may not be possible.

All sound checks cease at 7:30pm.

Failure to attend on time forfeits your right to any sound check on the night.

7. If work commitments prevent your attendance, arrange with fellow band members to bring, set-up and execute your sound check in the allocated time.
8. Merchandise sales are permitted. Please ensure that you have your own float and an A4 price list. SCALA does not provide a merch person so arrange with the two other acts to cover each other for the night. SCALA charges no commission for any merch sales.
